Notes

- Students must attain a GPA of 3.0 to student teach and have a GPA of 3.0 at the conclusion of their program.
- Students should be formally admitted to the teacher certification program and should have taken ENG 230, ENG 331, EDM 300, EDP 351, and EDS 306 before taking the advanced methods courses (ENG 390, ENG 392). "Formal admission" means that students have met the requirements to do advanced study in a teacher education program. To be formally admitted, students must pass all their Praxis I (PPST) tests, earned at least 48 college credits (including three in writing, three in literature, and six in math), attained the required GPA (usually 2.8), and passed the Department of English’s test of writing competency. Then they need to apply for formal admission at the College of Education and Social Work.
- The Department of English’s test of writing competency is offered once in the fall and once in the spring. It is the student’s responsibility to find out when the test is given and to make arrangements for attendance.
- Students must submit a successful writing portfolio before student teaching.
- Many of these classes are offered during the day and during the fall and spring semesters only, especially the advanced methods courses.
- Students should contact the Department of Educational Foundations and Policy Studies to be properly advised about education courses.
