The Study Abroad Program and Immersion Experiences
Majors and minors in languages are strongly encouraged to study abroad for immersion experiences. If study abroad for an entire year is not feasible, students should plan to study for a semester or, at least, one summer. The department advises students in cooperation with the Center for International Programs and cooperates with other PASSHE schools in affording students study abroad venues. (In the event that a language major is unable to complete the immersion experience, the Department will make other options available.)

Students in the department can choose from a broad range of study abroad options in all of the languages covered by the department (whether at the major or the minor level), in either WCU faculty-led programs and collaborations with study abroad organizations from all over the world. Please contact the Center for International Programs for approved programs of study. The department’s webpage contains information and updates on our study abroad programs.

Language Placement

Second Language Placement Examination
All students who are pursuing a Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree or who enter WCU as a Pre-Major (Undeclared) student are required to complete the Second Language Placement section. Depending on your answers on this section, you will be placed by means of an online test (if there is an online test available for your language), or you will be contacted by the Department of Languages and Cultures to be placed (if there is no online test available for your language). The online test is available for these languages: Chinese, French, German, Russian, Spanish. For the following languages, you will be contacted by the Department of Languages and Cultures: American Sign Language, Arabic, Biblical Hebrew, Classical Greek, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Portuguese. Your score on the online test will be used by the Department of Languages and Cultures as one of several variables to determine your language placement. Based on other factors (years of language study in high school, at-home use of the language, time since the language was last taken, etc.), your final placement may be different from the equivalence indicated by your online test score. Instructions on taking the online Second Language Placement Examination can be found in the WCU Placement Portal on myWCU. If students have questions about the Second Language Placement they can email the Languages and Cultures Department at mpersch@wcupa.edu.
