SPA 250. Intermediate Spanish for Reading. 3 Credits.
This is a course designed to help undergraduate students read in Spanish and translate texts from Spanish into English. This course serves as an alternative to the second part of the Intermediate Level sequence in Spanish (SPA 202). Students will be expected to continue to improve on their oral, aural, and reading Spanish skills by the end of the course, but the main emphasis will be to understand texts of moderate difficulty written originally in Spanish. Special emphasis is given to the expansion of vocabulary and the consolidation of grammatical structures studied throughout the sequence of SPA 101, SPA 102, and SPA 201. Throughout the weeks students will be able to get enough grammatical tools to understand how the language works and how to understand meaning. In-class communication between the professor and the students and among the students will be conducted in Spanish.

SPA 203. Spanish for Heritage Speakers. 3 Credits.
This course is tailored to meet the specific needs of heritage speakers of the language. In many cases, this means students who grew up speaking Spanish at home but did not attend school in the language. In this course, students build on their already existing knowledge and expand their command of the four linguistic skills (listening, speaking, reading, and writing) while studying authentic cultural materials. Interested students are encouraged to consult the Department before enrolling for accurate placement. Non-native speakers should consider SPA 202. SPA 301 and SPA 303 may be taken simultaneously. Students may only receive credit for SPA 202 or SPA 303 but not both. Pre / Co requisites: SPA 203 requires a prerequisite of SPA 202 or SPA 250. Gen Ed Attribute: Speaking Emphasis. Typically offered in Fall & Spring.
