

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN PUBLIC MANAGEMENT

College of Business and Public Management

The Graduate Certificate in Public Management focuses on public-sector management at the local and regional levels. It is appropriate for managers and officials from local, county, and regional government bodies that desire to enhance their general management skills as well as gain insight into public policy issues of particular concern to these officials. To obtain the certificate, students must complete twelve credits from the approved MPA Administration Core and/or the MPA Public Management Concentration courses. Degree students that have completed the certificate requirements may also apply for the certificate via the Add Certificate Request (<https://www.wcupa.edu/registrar/documents/GraduateAddCertificateRequestviamyWCU.pdf>) in myWCU.
