Programs of Study
The WCU Department of Counselor Education is proud to offer CACREP-accredited programs in Clinical Mental Health Counseling (M.S.) as well as School Counseling (M.Ed.). Each course has been meticulously designed by our expert faculty to prepare students to effectively navigate the field, providing intentional and evidence-based treatment to the clients whom they serve. At a fundamental level, counselors are generalists, having the ability to adapt and apply core concepts and skills with a diverse clientele. As such, students will first be exposed to the foundational knowledge necessary to navigate the therapeutic process with intentionality as agents of change. Through specialty-specific courses, they will then develop the advanced skills needed to be effective in the roles associated with their concentration.

Beyond content, special attention will be paid to bridging the gap between “knowing” and “doing” by incorporating guided application activities, based on real-world scenarios, across the curriculum, eventually leading to a 700-hour field experience working with real clients. Critical to counselor competence, cultural exploration and awareness will also frame the content and skills delivered in each course, calling on students to evaluate and adapt to the complex worldviews of, not only their clients, but also themselves. Through their self-awareness, knowledge, and honed therapeutic skills, our graduates will be prepared to be true catalysts of change in their communities.

The Department also offers certificate options for master's level professionals seeking additional education to qualify for licensure or certification as a school counselor.

Admissions
All applicants to one of West Chester University’s graduate programs will be held to the graduate admissions requirements (http://catalog.wcupa.edu/general-information/admissions-enrollment/graduate-admissions/). When applicable, additional requirements for admission into specific department program(s) may be listed below.

M.Ed. in School Counseling / M.S. in Clinical Mental Health Counseling

When admitting an applicant to the counselor education programs, the department makes a commitment to the student’s development and future success. The department evaluates each candidate through the use of multiple criteria. Admission requires an undergraduate degree from an accredited college or university. The expected standard for students applying to counselor education programs is a minimum 3.0 grade point average (GPA) on a 4.0 scale. Students applying to the M.Ed. in School Counseling program must have a 3.0 to be considered, per regulations from the PA Department of Education. Standardized scores such as the Graduate Record Exam (GRE) or the Miller Analogies Test (MAT) are not required. In addition to all undergraduate grades, all candidates must submit two letters of reference, writing samples, and participate in an on-campus interview with department faculty.

Specialist Certificate I in Counseling / Post-Master's Certificate in Professional Counselor Licensure Preparation

Master's degree is required.

Policies
All graduate students are held to the academic policies and procedures (http://catalog.wcupa.edu/graduate/academic-policies-procedures/) outlined in the graduate catalog. Students are encouraged to review departmental handbooks for program tips, suggested course sequences, and explanations of procedures. When applicable, additional policies for specific department programs may be listed below.

Degree Requirements
After completion of 15 credit hours but prior to enrolling for 25 credit hours of counselor education course work, students are eligible and must apply for degree candidacy.
Degree Candidacy Requirements
1. Students must earn a grade of B (83%) or better in all degree candidacy courses (EDC 503, EDC 521, EDC 567, EDC 570, and EDC 571).
2. Faculty are asked to share each semester any concerns with the student’s interpersonal skills and/or overall mental health. If concerns are expressed, a formal assessment may be required prior to granting degree candidacy.
3. Students seeking certification as a school counselor must successfully complete the Pennsylvania Department of Education (PDE) certification requirements: Praxis PPST Reading, Writing, and Mathematics Tests (or already be PDE teacher certified in another subject area). All students admitted after January 1, 2011 must complete PDE Chapter 49.13 requirements.

Comprehensive Exam Policy for the Department of Counselor Education
All students will complete a comprehensive exam, which represents the major cognate evaluation of counseling candidates. The degree being pursued will be granted only when students have passed the department's standards, which includes passing the comprehensive exam.

Approval for Field Experience and Internship for School Counseling
All students must meet the following criteria in order to start field experience:
• Complete the designated courses per program requirement with an earned grade of B or better to enroll in practicum.
• Attend mandatory Field Orientation with Field Director.
• Declare intent by completing the designated form the semester prior to the academic semester they are eligible for practicum/internship.
• Have liability insurance throughout professional experiences.
• Completed the following forms¹:
  • Child abuse history clearance form
  • Request for criminal record check
  • FBI records check
  • TB test
• See department webpage and/or handbook for specific programmatic requirements.

¹ Practicum/Internship students will apply for updated clearances a semester prior to practicum and internship. The Office of Candidate Services will notify students when they should apply for clearances.

Field Experience Minimum Grade
Students in the Department of Counselor Education must earn a B or better in any field experience course. A grade of B- or below in any field experience course must be repeated with remediation. Only one field experience course may be remediated and a grade of B or better is required before continuing on to a future field experience course.

Educational Specialist I Certificate
In order to obtain the Educational Specialist I Certificate, students must successfully complete the required practicum and internship experiences in approved secondary or elementary school settings. These courses provide an opportunity for students, under West Chester University faculty supervision, to work closely with a professional counselor in a school setting. The certificate is issued on the basis of the program approval status of the counselor education program at the University as granted by the Pennsylvania Department of Education.

EDC 562. Counseling Children and Adolescents. 3 Credits.
This course is designed to provide an in-depth look at the factors impacting children and adolescents in the counseling relationship in a school or clinical setting. Exploration will include typical and atypical development reflecting the cognitive, social, emotional, and physical domains. Additionally, theory and social factors, including culture, ethnicity/race, gender, class, and sexual orientation, will be examined. Students will be required to apply and integrate this knowledge through various written assignments, class discussion, and introspective analysis. Typically offered in Fall, Spring & Summer.

EDC 563. Counseling & Human Sexuality. 3 Credits.
This course is designed to lead counselors in training through an exploration of both multicultural and biopsychosocial aspects of human sexuality across the life span. Healthy sexual functioning is reviewed as well as the assessment and treatment of sexuality dysfunctions and disorders. Counseling students will address personal attitudes, beliefs, and biases regarding sexuality and will learn about appropriate assessment and treatment strategies based on the role of relational structure, age, gender identity, sexual orientation, ability status, ethnicity, and other cultural factors that influence sexual preferences and choices. The course will also examine sexual risk taking, sexually transmitted infections, and both ethical and legal considerations related to sexuality and counseling. Typically offered in Fall & Spring.

EDC 564. Counseling Supervision and Consultation. 3 Credits.
This course is designed to introduce students to the primary theories and practice of counselor supervision and consultation models. Students will discuss the clinical and administrative frameworks, specific ethical issues that coincide with supervision, and the importance of the supervisory relationship, as well as information pertaining to burnout and self-care. Class time will allow students to role-play, engage in group discussions, and receive supervised experience. Typically offered in Fall & Spring.

EDC 565. Animal Assisted Therapy in Counseling. 3 Credits.
The purpose of this course is to focus on the animal-human bond and its therapeutic applications in goal-directed activities and interventions. The benefits of animal assisted therapy programs will be examined through a review of current research, best practices, ethical and legal issues in the specialty of AAT. The course covers human/pet volunteer training; animal assisted therapeutic applications; and animals in institutions, residential facilities, and educational settings. Consent: Permission of the Department required to add. Typically offered in Fall, Spring & Summer.

EDC 566. LGBT Considerations in Counseling. 3 Credits.
The purpose of this course is to introduce students to considerations specific to providing counseling services to members of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, and Transgender (LGBT) Communities. Instruction will focus on (a) conceptualizing and differentiating the experiences and identity development of individuals within each community, (b) providing ethical and affirmative counseling services, and (c) exploring current issues as they relate to empirical research, perceived conflicts between religious and sexual diversity, family issues, and public policy. Consent: Permission of the Department required to add. Typically offered in Fall, Spring & Summer.

EDC 567. Group Dynamics. 3 Credits.
This course presents the fundamentals of group development, group dynamics and group theory. Part of the course will include guided application in which students will engage in a group process and demonstrate group leadership skills. Typically offered in Spring.

EDC 568. Career Development and School Counseling. 3 Credits.
This course will provide students with an overview of career development and counseling in school counseling settings. The purpose of this course is to introduce students to the major concepts and theories of career development and to enable students to acquire the skills and knowledge necessary to be effective career counselors. This course will include a guided application component. Pre / Co requisites: EDC 568 requires prerequisites of EDC 503, EDC 570, and EDC 571; and corequisites of EDC 576, EDC 505, EDC 577, and EDC 603. Typically offered in Spring.

EDC 570. Fundamentals of the Helping Relationship. 3 Credits.
This course highlights the intentional nature of the counseling process and the use of micro-counseling skills in the development of a working relationship. Focus will be put on the gathering of data necessary to understand the nature of the client’s concerns and the resources the client brings to addressing these concerns. This course will include a guided application component. Typically offered in Fall.

EDC 571. Counseling Theory and Practice. 3 Credits.
This course provides an overview of foundational, contemporary, and emerging theoretical approaches utilized in counseling. Particular focus will be paid to differentiating theoretical approaches as it relates to mechanisms of change, therapeutic interventions, case conceptualization, and treatment planning. This course will include a guided application component. Typically offered in Fall.

EDC 572. Diagnosis and Appraisal II. 3 Credits.
As an advanced assessment course, this course expands the student’s understanding of differential diagnosis and case conceptualization. The focus of the course is on gaining experience with assessments in service of differential diagnosis, case conceptualization, and treatment planning. The focus is to acquire knowledge and develop skills necessary for mental health counselors to make ethical, thorough, and accurate assessments in their counseling work to facilitate the most appropriate interventions for their clients. This course will include a guided application component. Pre / Co requisites: EDC 572 requires prerequisites of EDC 551, EDC 570, EDC 571, EDC 560, EDC 520, EDC 552, EDC 567, EDC 521, EDC 506, and EDC 557. Typically offered in Spring.

EDC 576. Consultation and Coordination in School Counseling. 3 Credits.
This course focuses on models, mechanisms, and strategies of employing consultation and coordination in remedial and preventive interventions in educational settings. Systems analysis and program development and evaluation will be addressed relative to consultation and coordination. This course will include a guided application component. EDC 605. Clinical Mental Health Counseling Internship I. 3 Credits.
As part of an interconnected set of field experiences, this course builds upon the student’s efforts and growth during the practicum. Although there is continued attention on the intern’s professional identity development, this course provides a supervisory experience specifically crafted to promote the student’s development as a reflective practitioner. Emphasis will be on the intern’s ability to, in real-time, track and adjust to the evolving therapeutic process using deliberate interventions grounded in theory and evidence-based practices.
Pre / Co requisites: EDC 605 requires prerequisites of EDC 551, EDC 570, EDC 571, EDC 560, EDC 520, EDC 552, EDC 567, EDC 521, EDC 580, and EDC 557.
Typically offered in Summer.

EDC 606. Clinical Mental Health Counseling Internship II. 3 Credits.
This course is the culminating field experience for CMHC counselors-in-training. Students will continue to hone their clinical skills as reflective practitioners via case conceptualization. Professional identity will be addressed in the context of self-guided evaluation and professional development after graduation. Student-led seminars will provide an opportunity for the exploration of professional topics of interest to the student while additional time will be dedicated to helping prepare the student to navigate the job market upon graduation.
Pre / Co requisites: EDC 606 requires prerequisites of EDC 551, EDC 570, EDC 571, EDC 560, EDC 520, EDC 567, EDC 521, EDC 580, EDC 557, EDC 605, and EDC 572.
