

ADVANCED CERTIFICATE IN TEACHING WRITING

Curriculum

This Advanced Certificate in Teaching Writing will enhance any teacher's tool box. Our philosophy at the West Chester Writing Projects focuses on practical application of writing in the K-12 classroom. Students will complete the intense, PWP 597 in the summer, PWP 502 typically offered in the fall semester, and ENG 595. An additional 3 credits of PWP courses will be selected based on availability and schedule rotations. Other relevant/related courses will be considered with Program Coordinator approval.

Code	Title	Credits
Required
ENG 595	Teaching Composition	3
PWP 502	Teacher as Writer	3
PWP 597	Invitational Writing Institute	6
Electives
Complete 3 credits from the list, or others with approval of the Writing Project Director.		3
PWP 503	Strategies for Teaching Writing
PWP 508	Digital Literacies
PWP 510	Content Area Literacies
PWP 511	Writing Assessment
PWP 514	Grammar Matters
PWP 516	Reading and Writing Argumentative Texts
PWP 520	Finding Writing Mentors: Grades K-5
PWP 521	Finding Writing Mentors: Grades 6-12
PWP 599	Special Topics in Teaching
Total Minimum Credits Required		15