DEPARTMENT OF THEATRE AND DANCE

College of Arts and Humanities
119 E.O. Bull Center for the Arts
610-436-3463
Department of Theatre and Dance (http://www.wcupa.edu/theatreDance/)
Harvey Rovine (hrovine@wcupa.edu), Chairperson

The Department of Theatre and Dance offers a bachelor of arts program in theatre, as well as minors in theatre and dance, which combines the foundation of a liberal arts education with the creative skills needed by the developing artist.

Students with an academic major or minor in the department are required to meet with a departmental faculty advisor to develop their curricular plans, select courses prior to scheduling, discuss career options, and to be aware of co-curricular opportunities. Handbooks are provided to entering students for their use as a guide to the development of their academic programs.

Department Student Activities

University Theatre; University Dance Company; United States Institute for Theatre Technology; The American College Dance Association; Alpha Psi Omega; and the Kennedy Center American College Theatre Festival are organizations that involve theatre and dance majors and non-majors in theatre- and dance-related activities. For more information see the "Student Affairs (http://catalog.wcupa.edu/undergraduate/student-affairs/student-activities/)")" section of the catalog.

Department Apprenticeships

Although not required, professional apprenticeship experiences are available to qualified majors and minors respectively. Students and their placements are screened by the department to assure mutual satisfaction for all parties involved. For details, students should see the department chairperson.

Courses

DAN

DAN 130. Movement for Performance. 3 Credits.

The purpose of this course is to improve body intelligence, providing a strong foundation for acting and dance performance. Yoga and Pilate based exercises are incorporated to build strength and flexibility. Laban’s system or analyzing movement using space/time/effort is examined in this course along with movement sequencing improvisation, visualization and relaxation techniques. No previous dance or acting training necessary. Typically offered in Spring.
DAN 132. Modern Dance I. 3 Credits.
This course is an introduction to modern dance as a 20th century art form which makes use of the integration of “mind” and “body” into an expressive and communicative whole. The work in this class has many layers, including ongoing development of physical skills as well as explorations into improvisation, choreography and the historical contexts that have shaped modern dance.
Gen Ed Attribute: Arts Distributive Requirement.
Typically offered in Fall & Spring.

DAN 133. Jazz Dance I. 3 Credits.
This course will bring students together in movement practice and expression through the investigation of various American Jazz dance forms. Students will focus on the technical elements that form the practice, as well as the musicality and rhythmic structure that is essential to the form. In these experiences students will search to find their own “voices” within the movement.
Gen Ed Attribute: Arts Distributive Requirement.
Typically offered in Fall, Spring & Summer.

DAN 134. Beginner’s Ballet. 3 Credits.
This course is designed to teach fundamental ballet technique and vocabulary at the beginning level. The emphasis will be on using anatomically sound principles to promote efficient use of the body and develop kinesthetic awareness. The course also includes an over view of the history of ballet from its origins until present day.
Gen Ed Attribute: Arts Distributive Requirement.
Typically offered in Fall & Spring.

DAN 135. Tap Dancing I. 3 Credits.
The primary purpose of this course is to introduce the fundamentals of tap dance technique, form and function. Emphasis will be given to basic steps, building combinations, musicality, performance of movement, and understanding the historical background of tap dance as an art form.
Gen Ed Attribute: Arts Distributive Requirement.
Typically offered in Fall & Spring.

DAN 136. Introduction to Ballroom Dance. 3 Credits.
The purpose of this course is to teach students the basic steps of ballroom dance, smooth, rhythm and Latin dances. Emphasis will be placed on lead and follow techniques, proper footwork and positions, and how to recognize and dance to different types of music. While most of the techniques taught in this class are from the American style of ballroom dance, students will learn the historical context of the diverse cultures from where they originated and be able to contextualize their global significance. This course will also enable the student to participate in social occasions requiring ballroom dancing skills, such as weddings, formal social and business parties, as well as informal occasions.
Gen Ed Attribute: Arts Distributive Requirement.
Typically offered in Fall.

DAN 137. African Dance. 3 Credits.
Through readings, discussion, videos, movement, essays, and other intensive projects, this course will explore dance and music from West Africa and the African Diaspora.
Gen Ed Attribute: Arts Distributive Requirement.

Ballet II is an intermediate-level course designed to expand on the ballet fundamentals and basic vocabulary learned in Ballet I.
Typically offered in Fall & Spring.

DAN 235. Tap Dancing II. 2 Credits.
The primary focus of this course is to introduce the fundamentals of tap dance at an intermediate level. Emphasis will be given to focus and presentation of steps and combinations, musicality, and individual expression through movement.
Typically offered in Fall.

DAN 300. Controversial Bodies: Visions of Beauty. 3 Credits.
Controversial Bodies: Visions of Beauty will foster a discussion of bodily beauty across the multiples fields of theater, dance, history and sociology. In creating a course that holds these two physical markers, the body and beauty, at its core, a space can be filled within the university’s curriculum where central to the course is the notion that the body is a social and cultural entity and that, markers of bodily beauty are constructed differently across various cultures and time periods. In particular, Controversial Bodies: Visions of Beauty, examines how figures in the performing arts have pulled the make-up of beauty in opposite directions, reinforcing or subverting the norms of what is socially and politically acceptable, playing with nudity, androgyny and ugliness, and rewriting the markers of beauty in terms of race, gender, age and bodily type.
Gen Ed Attribute: Interdisciplinary Requirement.
Typically offered in Fall & Spring.

DAN 315. Dance Pedagogy. 3 Credits.
Basic course offering methods and materials for teaching dance technique.
