Department Mission Statement
The Department of Educational Foundations and Policy Studies is dedicated to fostering the development of educators with the requisite critical consciousness and pedagogical skills to act as public intellectuals: citizen-teachers capable of creating pedagogical spaces and practices that are relevant, impactful, and liberating for their students.

Programs of Study
Minor in Professional Education
Dana Morrison (dmorrison@wcupa.edu), Coordinator
The Minor in Professional Education was designed for any student who is not a major in a teacher education program to explore the foundations of education. With three required courses and a wide-range of elective options to choose from, this 18-credit minor can provide you with important knowledge and skills related to teaching and learning. Students can pair this coursework with a variety of other majors and minors to bring educational insights to a variety of fields. With professions of all kinds recognizing the necessity of continued learning, the Professional Education Minor positions students to take on educational roles (coach, trainer, facilitator) in many different occupational and community settings.

Undergraduate Certificate in Education for Sustainability
Paul A. Morgan (pmorgan@wcupa.edu), Coordinator
The 12-credit undergraduate certificate program in Education For Sustainability (EFS) is designed for undergraduates and post-baccalaureate students who want to develop their understanding of sustainability and apply their learning on campus, at home, and in their future careers. The program consists of four courses that provide the perspective, experiences, and practical methods needed to immediately put their learning into practice.
