Honors College Mission

Modeling a commitment to liberal arts and cross-disciplinary education, the Honors College celebrates outstanding students and encourages them to strive for a high level of academic excellence. The college prepares students to become forces for positive change in the life of the campus and the broader community through scholarship, co-curricular activities, service, teamwork, and leadership. The college motivates students to examine and refine character, become active citizens, and value life-long learning. With the motto, "To Be Honorable Is to Serve," honors is about the business of preparing leaders for the 21st century.

The University provides to students with outstanding achievements in scholarship, community service, the arts, and/or leadership the opportunity to participate in a challenging honors curriculum and to receive appropriate recognition when they complete the requirements. The Honors College aims to provide an inviting environment for academically gifted and highly motivated students to interact and form a learning community of peers, faculty, administrators, and staff that will challenge and enrich the students' college experience.

The Honors College seeks cross-disciplinary connections, in the liberal arts tradition, which develop students' natural intellectual abilities, and to challenge them to use these skills on behalf of the larger community. Qualified students may participate in Honors through one of two tracks: entering first year students in the honors living-learning program and upper-class students and external transfer students through the honors seminar program. Membership is highly competitive and based on attainment and maintenance of a cumulative 3.25 grade point average, regular enrollment in honors courses, and service to the campus community.

All entering first year students in the Honors College reside on designated floors of Allegheny Hall. Students in good standing may retain space in honors housing throughout their undergraduate experience. Suite-style, air-conditioned rooms with bathroom facilities house two students. The 7th floor of Allegheny also hosts a designated lounge with projection system, free laundry facilities and ice machine, a music practice room with a baby grand piano and technology center equipped with video editing capabilities for Honors student use. Students also have membership in the Honors Student Association.

The Honors College full-time faculty, with input from associated teaching faculty and the advisory board, sets the policies of the college, including determination of admission and retention of students. Students completing the full honors program receive designation on their University transcript and the right to wear a medallion of achievement at commencement. Recognition at commencement is based on the student's academic record as of the completed semester prior to commencement.

Program Design

The Honors College aims to provide an inviting environment for academically gifted and highly motivated students to interact and form a learning community of peers, faculty, administrators, and staff that will challenge and enrich the students' college experience. Grounded in the liberal arts tradition, the Honors College seeks cross-disciplinary connections in order to develop students' natural intellectual abilities and to challenge them to employ those gifts on behalf of the larger community. For this reason, the West Chester University Honors College considers "honors" to be more than a matter of strong grades; it implies a decision to use knowledge as an active problem solver in both the campus community and in the world. To that end, the Honors College seeks to build character and foster a commitment to life-long learning that prepares leaders for the 21st Century.

Specially designated honors housing exists in Allegheny Hall. The living-learning community comprises a critical component of the WCU honors experience. All first year students live in the honors designated residency and are afforded the opportunity to retain space throughout their undergraduate program of study.

The Honors College actively promotes faculty mentored undergraduate student research which may lead to poster or paper presentations at local, state, regional, national and international contexts or to publication. Students engage in grant writing skill development and gain clearance certification in human subject research. Honors hosts a campus wide Graduate School Fair and a professional development seminar, providing students encouragement in seeking opportunities for post baccalaureate professional and/or graduate study leading towards advanced degrees.

An intentional focus on leadership in a global community is evident by a continuing partnership in South Africa. A seminar-based research/service course, incorporating international travel, ideally occurs in spring of odd-numbered years. A leadership theories course, offered each fall, draws lessons from the South Africa transformations from apartheid to democracy. Aid to South Africa has become the signature philanthropic program of the Honors College. The annual event offers educational exhibits and raises funds in support of HIV-AIDS afflicted children in South Africa.

In 2015, the Honors College began a relationship with the Norwegian Nobel Peace Institute (NNPI) and the Nobel Peace Committee. A fall honors seminar links Nobel's aspirations for peace with the Division of Student Affairs to offer the Nobel Leadership Series. West Chester Honors students receive an invitation each fall to formally nominate a candidate to the NNPI for consideration as recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize in the following year.

Fulfillment of the Honors College's mission to service comes primarily through a vibrant Honors Student Association (H.S.A.), the co-curricular arm of the honors experience. The H.S.A. provides students a myriad of opportunities to put leadership theory into practice for the service of others. Students witness their abilities to enact change through their efforts in civic engagement. Students who document a minimum 30 hours of service in a minimum of seven semesters or who achieve a minimum of 250 documented hours qualify as Donna M. Carney Service Scholars.

Admissions Policies

Honors College Core Program

Honors College membership comprises students with outstanding achievements in scholarship, community service, the arts, and/or leadership. Membership in honors is highly competitive with a maximum of 80 seats open to entering first year students each fall. Current membership includes students from 61 different academic majors. Successful candidates typically demonstrate a combination of the following:

1. Minimum unweighted high school GPA of 3.6
2. Minimum 1270 SAT (combined math and verbal score)/27 ACT

3. Top 20 percent of their graduating class
4. A record of achievement in high school honors/AP courses

Candidates are reviewed and selected on the basis of commitment to service, leadership potential, and fit with the college's philosophy.

Minor in Civic and Professional Leadership

Students must complete either HON 110 or CPL 120 before applying to the minor.

Honors Seminar Certificate

Current and transfer students, who have earned a minimum of 30 credits and a minimum 3.25 cumulative GPA, may apply for this certificate program.

Program Requirement Completion Policies

Honors College Core Program

Membership in the Honors College enables students to enhance their strengths through a specially designed 27-hour core of cross-disciplinary courses that, with one additional course in both mathematics and science, meet general education requirements for honors students. Cross-disciplinary means that all courses in the core contain information drawn from a minimum of two academic disciplines. The honors core incorporates 100-, 200-, and 300-level courses. Students complete three courses at the 100/200 level, during their first year in the college, focusing on personal development, including physical and psychological well-being, communication, and ethics and morality in a technological age. Courses at the 300 level, completed by the middle of the student's third year, build upon the learner's knowledge of self and address broader perspectives of community and social change. Learners study significant historical and contemporary figures, literary works, and the context in which they helped model society. Students become aware of the economic realities that impact change and discover how educational and political structure, science, and the fine arts influence society. Honors certification is awarded upon completion of the core 27 hours; one course in mathematics (we strongly recommend statistics for those majors without a specific mathematics requirement); one course in general education approved science; two upper-level, cross-disciplinary honors seminars; and a capstone project. Students completing the full honors curriculum receive designation on their University transcript and the right to wear a medallion of achievement at commencement. Recognition at commencement is based on the student's academic record as of the completed semester prior to commencement.

Minor in Civic and Professional Leadership

Students may obtain minor recognition on their transcript through completion of 18 credits of coursework and pass/fail for completion of 6 co-curricular competencies. Students must have:

1. An overall 2.5 GPA in the minor at the completion of coursework,
2. Earned a grade of C or higher in all courses counted towards the minor, and
3. Have verification of completion of a minimum of six co-curricular competencies, as documented in the student's co-curricular portfolio.

Honors Seminar Certificate

Aside from the required coursework, students must also demonstrate active contributions and service to co-curricular elements of the campus community.

Academic Probation Policy for the Honors College Core Program

In order to be in good standing with the Honors College, students must maintain a 3.25 cumulative GPA, be active in a minimum of one campus co-curricular activity, and regularly register for the sequence of honors core courses and seminars. Failure to maintain these requirements will cause the student to be placed on probation from honors and may lead to their dismissal from the College.

College probation and dismissal follow these procedures: Once a student in the Honors College has earned 31 credit hours, their cumulative GPA will be reviewed. If the student's average is below a 3.0, the student will be dropped from the Honors College. If a student's average is below a 3.25 but not below a 3.0, the student will be placed on Honors College probation for two semesters, during which time the student is expected to raise their cumulative GPA to a 3.25. If at the end of the two semesters the cumulative GPA is not a 3.25 or higher, the student will be dismissed from the college. Students also may be placed on probation if they are not actively participating in a minimum of one campus co-curricular activity or if they are not regularly registering for and completing the sequence of honors core courses and seminars. No student will be eligible for honors transcript recognition without maintaining a 3.25 cumulative GPA upon completion of the Honors College's required elements. A minimum grade of C+ must be earned in all honors course work that is counted towards graduation.

Students dismissed from the Honors College may seek reinstatement by contacting the College's director. Students may appeal the dismissal or probationary action for extraordinary circumstances by contacting the Honors Director who will take the appeal before the Honors Department for a final decision. Any student who is dismissed from Honors or voluntarily chooses to leave the College may not seek admission to the seminar program.
