Music Tests - Bachelor of Music in Music Education

1. Each candidate must demonstrate skill in at least one performance medium in which they excel: piano, organ, voice, classical guitar, or a band or orchestra instrument. It is preferable, although not required, for pianists and vocalists to perform at least part of their audition from memory.

2. All candidates are tested in music theory, sight-singing, and piano.

3. Piano, organ, or voice majors with band or orchestra instrument experience may demonstrate their ability on their instruments.

NOTE: All candidates must bring music for the vocal, piano, and instrumental compositions they intend to perform.

Music Tests: Bachelor of Music with a Concentration in Theory, Composition, or Music History; Bachelor of Music in Performance; or Bachelor of Music with Elective Studies

Each candidate in performance must demonstrate an advanced level of proficiency in the major area of performance as evidenced by the ability to perform compositions representing a variety of musical periods and styles, and must show potential as a professional performer. Memorization is required for pianists and vocalists. Each candidate in theory and composition or elective studies must demonstrate an acceptable background in a major performing area; candidates in theory and composition must interview with the Department of Music Theory, History, and Composition.
