

MINOR IN WEB TECHNOLOGY AND APPLICATIONS

College of the Sciences and Mathematics

(*Note: As of Spring 2019, this program is no longer accepting new students.)

The Minor in Web Technology and Applications introduces students to fundamental principles of web design, including the underlying technology and principles of aesthetics and effective communications.

Code	Title	Credits
Required Courses ¹
ART 113	Digital Media	3
COM 201	Fundamentals of Communication Technology	3
CSW 131	Introduction to Web Design	3
Select one elective from each of the three different departments ¹		9
ART 210	Typography I
COM 292	Living in the Digital Age ²
CSW 315	Introduction to Web Programming ²
EDT 300	Intro to Educational Technology Integration
ENG 320	Usability & User Experience
HIS 390	History on the Web ²
HIS 480	Digital History ²
WRH 205	Composing Cyberspace
Or an approved independent project
Total Credits		18

¹ A student must earn a minimum grade of C- in each course and a minimum overall GPA of 2.0 or higher for all courses taken for the minor.

² At least one of these electives must be a designated capstone project course.